

In cooperation with the Royal Danish Embassy, DCCJ is proud to announce that we invite our members to a business luncheon with the Minister for Employment, Mr. Troels Lund Poulsen.

The purpose of the visit is to initiate the process of a bilateral “Social Security Agreement” between Denmark and Japan and to strengthen the ties between the two countries within the field of employment and the future labour market.

We encourage our members to open up for a fruitful discussion, and also give input to the Minister on your comments on the bilateral “Social Security Agreement”, experiences with the Japanese labour market and or research & development issues that your company may be facing. Furthermore to discuss the business related side of the “Disruption Council” and receive input and comments to the Minister.

Comparing with Denmark, could you give your input for difference and challenges your company faces in regards to working conditions?

Do you foresee a problem in your company with the decrease population and other demographic problems? Do you have a plan to deal with this?

Do you invest in education of your employees?

Questions such as above could be of both interest to the Minister as well as to Danish companies in Japan in the long run, when the Minister returns back to Denmark with knowledge from our members and possibly implement to actual policies in Denmark.

Due to political circumstances the schedule for the Minister may change on the day, please be aware that changes in the program may occur.
